yes...hear you...you didn't answer my Braden question...how is he and how did he do on his test? I hope he was able to hide his emotions from his class mates...kids can be so mean.

Another question...do you let Braden play with anyone that logs on to these video games? I'm not sure how much I like Ty doing this. I don't mind if they are HIS friends, but you can play with anyone! Yesterday, someone told Ty he sucked and was being mean to him...then another person asked Ty if he thought they were sexy! WHAT?? I don't think it is good and want to have a discussion with ty...make sure he knows never to tell these people who he is, where he lives, etc. I know they have discussed this stuff at school, but I am going over it again with him tomorrow

Bottom line it was a good conversation but he also says he is who he is. You should have called Nancy on your way to work...I'm sure they were under the impression you were coming to spend the day with them on Friday...oh well ...too late now. I don't know why Nancy would be mad about having to buy the ingredients for the cake? big deal? and it gave them something to do instead of just sit around the house...I'm glad Friday not got better once we got home.

I felt bad for you and it was just weird being there without any Groffs. I felt like Nancy was pissed at me for not calling earlier. But I swear I was so deep in stressed out kids. I should have called them on my way into the office though. She wasn't happy about having to buy all the ingredients for the homemade cake.

The consignment will be finished come Feb. 12...either we have to pick up the items or the lady keeps them and donates them ...what do you want to do? I'm happy to let her keep my dress ...whatever...I also have the other suit you wanted to give to the shop but she didn't accept ...it is hanging in our coat closet...need to get that back to you.

I hated it. Nancy told me on Friday night when they came to pick me up from the train station..."just want you to know we pissed off Ike" ...I was like "what happened" and Nancy said we don't know! Great....thanks Ike...I gotta talk to him about it.
