Work was much better today. He seemed to be in a better mood. Thanks for checking on me :) I think ike and I will do a spread sheet this weekend regarding money, pros, cons and see what we come up with. When all is good at work I love it (as long as i can work from home some.. But even then i wish it could be a day off and not be annoyed with work! Ha!)but when he is so mean and nasty I really have second thoughts.

Your night sounds wonderful with henry!! I love his dinner order! Too cute. And you must tell me what he thought of his gifts! Don't you love to see their faces light up! I hope you took pictures! (which reminds me I need to work on the easter pics from the egg hunt day)
We will take some cake off your hands for sure if you "need" us too! And yes, I hope the party is just us adults would be fun. Parents do tend to drop off around here no matter what the timing of party is ... And I'm sure pat was not happy he didn't make henry's practice also. It can be hard I'm sure.

I LOVE jlo also ..I need to hear the new song! Not sure I have. Hope you appt goes well today. You need to let me know which decorator u decided to go with. Although i know you met one yesterday too!

Ty said to menthes morning: TGIF mommy! I said my thoughts exactly!! Where'd he learn that! ??

Thanks! U r so sweet. I hope things were ok today at work with Jeffrey there. We need to continue to talk about your career! Yes, it's amazing that the boys could be 7! Gosh time flies and he IS the best thing I have in this world!! We r baseball now...of course, Pat didn't make it home for it...frustrates me. Anyway, we r having party at our house. Henry requested bacon/cheese biscuits and waffles...I already fried bacon but have to do rest when we get home. I'm listening to JLo's new song...I love it! I love her too! She is so beautiful. I am going to bring over some cake tmrw...I baked one and then we got Crumbs cupcakes from Aunt Colleen, too! We can't eat it all. I am excited you will be with me at the party! I hope most of the other parents just drop off so me and u can hang!! Pat will def be there too. And thank u for offering to help. I will respond to other email separately.

Happy Birthday to Henry today...i always feel like Mom's should be told Happy Birthday too! It was 7 years ago you rec'd the best gift you will ever receive! :)

also, Ike and I will both for sure stay for Henry's party on sunday and are happy to help in any way we can! it is going to be a lot of fun I'm sure.

Have fun tonight with the family celebration...where are y'all taking Henry?
