Dear Friends,

If you've already seen A BIRD OF THE AIR, now playing at The Village East Cinema, thank you very much and please tell all your friends. We had a great opening weekend and have been held over an extra week. If you haven't seen it yet, GO SEE IT THIS WEEK. You'll enjoy it. I guarantee it.

Audience feedback has been fantastic, and the New York press have started to take notice.

Jackson Hurst is "marvelously low-key and sexy"(Film Journal International) and, according to The New York Times, "Rachel Nichols is consistently appealing" while "Philippe Rousselot's nighttime shots of highway tragedy are dreamily atmospheric." The Village Voice highlights the great cameos while Variety calls out "Judith Ivey, Gary Farmer, Anjanette Comer, Buck Henry and Phyllis Somerville in brief guest turns that are terrifically thesped."

A BIRD OF THE AIR is "an offbeat love story that will give your heart wings" (Dr. Joy Browne, WOR Radio) and "a feel-good fable" (Time Out New York).

I'll see you at the theater! Did I mention, THIS WEEK?

Thanks again for all your support.
