Hi [REDACTED]!

Just wanted to give you a heads up about my meeting with Darren. It went well and he is going to talk to Jeffrey and make his decision by next week I guess. I told him I preferred to work with him and learn something new rather than work in a position that doesn't offer me anything other than a job. Let's see what happens!

Can you please send me his email address so I can thank him for meeting with me!

Thank you again for thinking of me and hopefully it works out!

Oh wow! so much happening all of a sudden! Sad I'll miss you but I may be seeing you more often anyway ;)

Sure I can bring a paper. I haven't written a paper by myself yet in my graduate program (only with a group) but Ill bring one from an undergraduate policy course.

I can also bring a copy of acknowledgements that I have done.

Thanks again [REDACTED]!

yes, bring your resume!

also bring anything you may have written...a paper for school...anything...he wants to see how you write...when you come, tell the front desk you are here to see Darren with HBRK on the 4th floor...

just FYI...I won't be here to say hello but I will be here in spirit...I am probably working from home next Tues...also...you won't believe this either...but Rich Barnett quit! His last day was last Friday...

Hi [REDACTED]!

It's so weird but your emails are getting lost! I wanted to email you and searched for our chain and realized I never saw your last email!

It's sad about Harry but he has been there so long!

I actually wanted to email you and put it out there incase Jeffery is looking for extra help or if you hear of anyone else looking for an assistant. As I mentioned I'm looking for a new job...something that pays better than what I am making now. Please let me know if you hear of anything!

Your new schedule sounds amazing! So good to have the opportunity to be home two days a week! I work until 5pm everyday and have class Wednesday and Thursday evenings so not sure if that works at all since I remember you used to leave at 4. If you're there later now I can come by at 5:30 to say hello on a Monday or Tues! Anyway let me know if that works!

Take care!

So sorry to hear about the BF...there are more men in the sea! ;)

You should try to come to the new office in the next couple of weeks as Harry is leaving!
To be honest, Jeffrey had told him 2 years ago it was time for him to look for a new job...he had a very difficult time finding something and i have felt bad for him cause who wants to work in a place where you know the boss wants you gone! He will go to an accounting firm (all WAY jewish like him)...so it will be a perfect fit for him...I hope ...I am not in the office all the time cause I work from JE' s house and JE now lets me work from home 2 days a week if he is not here (which is SO very nice) Look at your schedule and lets see if something would work.. Bella, Rich and Darren are still around...

take care!! [REDACTED]

Oh my gosh! [REDACTED] I am so sorry I didn't write you back sooner! I don't know how your email got lost!

Anyway, the house is still under construction? I thought you guys were working on it when I was still working there! What sports does [REDACTED] play...time really flies. I feel like it was yesterday when I saw everyone!

I'm very impressed with myself too for finishing school let alone grad school haha but I guess getting older does that. I love [REDACTED] but I've now decided to look for a position that is more challenging. I think I'm capable of more than I'm doing so we'll see how that goes. I'm also still not so "together" in the relationship department though. My bf and I recently broke up so back to square one! It's ok though, at least I have my new career and school to look forward to even though there's not too much work in the non-profit world these days...even for an entry level position!

I know I've been saying this for years but would love to come by and see you some time and say hello to everyone. Let's try to figure out the best time that you're not too busy and the office isn't crazy and I'll try to stop by before class!

Take care and keep in touch!

I'm quite impressed...seems like you are really getting it together :) I hope you are enjoying school and the new job...Things are great with all of us...[REDACTED] enjoying [REDACTED] and sports...[REDACTED] is a great dad and husband and working hard at his firm...Jeffrey is doing super too...working and keeping busy. Our house is still under construction! We hope to move in maybe early April...its very nice and way too big for just the 3 of us...My parents were just here for a visit and I think were overwhelmed by the project...(they are flying home today....great...as far as I know they have only departed the gate...I hope it is not a miserable day for them)

I will tell everyone you say hello...keep in touch :) [REDACTED]

Hi [REDACTED],

Just sending a quick hello note! I can't believe the last time we spoke was June! Time goes by sooo fast. Since we last spoke I started my new career-related job at [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and I started Grad School at [REDACTED]. I just started my second semester. How are things with you? How are [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]? How is Jeffrey doing? Please say hello to everyone for me!!

Best,

Hi [REDACTED],

Hope you're well and your summer has started off well! How is [REDACTED]?!

So I graduated last month and start grad school part time in September (you knew that I think). I've recently geared up my job search in the non-profit sector and I came across an article about Jeffery's foundation...I know it's based in the Virgin Islands but I was wondering if he did any work here in NY and looking for anyone to help out. I do more development and program assistance rather than foundation work but any entry level in non-profit work would be great...even part-time! I would really love to expand my work experience as I've been at the [REDACTED] for three years. Anyway, It was just a thought...let me know what you think!

Oh and I still haven't forgotten about stopping by and seeing you!

Thanks!
