Killer presentaton of the Tom Woods stuff. I'm a militant anti-X for the duration, as I believe I might have mentioned: nevertheless, that posting might turn out to be a lot more important than Charley Kane's "Statement of Principle." I only wish that we heathen Wikinger and Enlightenment scoffers could ignite the sort of weirdly-lit porphyrogenic blood-glow of hatred in the eyes for our Ruling Satans that every world-class Inquisition torturer and Traditionalist Catholic Major-Hater keeps on the broil 24/7. As he waits, and waits, and waits.....!
