Dear Simon,

I am on tour in Europe and would be delighted to follow up on your email when I return. In the meantime I am forwarding it to Lynne Meloccaro the Executive Director of the American Symphony to insure that the matter does not get lost in the press of business.

Thank you for writing. A friend of Jeffrey's is a friend of mine.

Best

Leon Botstein

Dear Leon Botstein,

I hope you had a wonderful week-end. I was wondering if you had the chance to read my previous email below.

I got your email from my friend Jeffrey Epstein who recommended I'd contact you to speak of possible collaborations between us. My name is Simon Ghraichy and I'm a pianist visiting New York from Paris, France until June 15th. I'd love to meet you during my stay.

Would you have any available time for me?

I have many projects in New York of which I would love to speak to you about, and I've also got a sponsor financing a great part of these projects.

Thank you in advance,

We were playing piano with Jeff the other day at his mansion when he suggested I'd contact you.

I'm wondering if you might be available to meet me during my stay in New York City - until June 13th - in order to speak of possible future collaborations with the American Symphony Orchestra? I'd love to have a performance with you in the future! So when is best for you to meet?

My address in NYC is Fifth Avenue 425, 10016 and you can reach me by email or on my phone +33 61 61 061 33.
