Typical day:

Beyond great.

Yesterday went to Javier Bardem film "Biutiful" at 8:30am. He gets Oscar nom and film is brilliant and depressing.

Press conference for "Biutiful" at 11:00am because I have a badge.....there is Paris Match, NY Times and Avenue Magazine all asking stupid questions.

Lunch at 2:00pm on Len Blavatnik's boat hosted by Harvey for rich investors. Carrot was JLo dressed for Easter Sunday in four inch Loubetan heels with Mark Anthony, looking like a sweet tiny ganster in a black chalk strip suit no more than an inch away from JLo at all times.

Went to Charles Finch's dinner at DuCap at 8:30pm which was very chic, mostly English, French, hand picked American filmmakers and Andre Balazs dressed all in white with puffy neck scarf like Kelsey Grammer in La Cage and comparing sun tans with George Hamilton...Christian Loubetain telling me he sues cobblers who paint their soles red and Mick Jagger with his son. Glen Close, Kevin Spacey, Dominic Cooper and his co-star new kid Luke Evans thrilled their is no press. Brought Tom Hooper.

Skipped 150 Anniversary of Chopard cattle call with Lionel Richie singing the two songs he probably sang at David Koch's 70th to 1,000 squished kids.

Took English director Tom Hooper, English actors Dominic Cooper and Luke Evans who co-star in Stephen Frears new film "Tamara Drewe" to Paul Allen's boat till 3:00am. Everyone faints from boat tour and yellow submarine as Paul plays guitar in his own band...more to come. Jagger staying on the boat.

Had a ball.....weather sunny and refreshing. Changeing outfits three times a day, taking notes for my diary and not getting enough sleep.

Everyone has their head in their blackberry with constant emailing about which parties you are going to and "can you get me in." Social pressure so intense even Andre Balasz, ruler of Boom Boom Room could not figure out at last minute how to get on Paul Allen's 300 foot boat.

xoxo Peg
