I will ask monday morning,, sorry,, the letters need a lot of work,, they should stress that she has asked for forgiveness in the past , and realizes that I have been a friend of the family for years. Many years ago . I plead guilty to paying underage prostitutes.. I have paid my debt, continued my charity work , and should expect the forgiveness that she herself has asked other s for. My crimes did in no way relate to pedopjhilia , a sensatilonlzed term used and taken out of context my the press. While she does not condone what happened, in any way , it was many years ago . and it is her unertaind that i hae continued funding some of the worlds greatest scenetists. with the hope of making the world a bteer place..

I would appreciate it if we could get an executed copy of our engagement letter returned. My understanding from Jay is that Darren has it.

Thanks

Mike

Here are two versions of a recommended letter. The only difference is the end of the first paragraph. You will note that there are a number of brackets in the letters. This is to indicate that they can be included or deleted.

I am not sure these are the charities you would choose, but we can easily substitute others.

Mike

Version I

I recently learned that I have been misinformed about the facts surrounding Jeffrey Epstein's conviction several years ago and that statements that have been attributed to me are false. For this, I deeply apologize.

Mr. Epstein is not a pedophile by any definition of the word. [According to public records, he was convicted of procuring a person under the age of 18 for prostitution, for he has served his time.] [It is my understanding that this involved a woman just a few months short of her 18th birthday.]

While I am disappointed and of course disapprove of some of the choices he has made, the Jeffrey Epstein I knew was a kind and very generous man, both to people in need and to the greater community in which he lives. It is not only his support of science for the greater good that so impressed me, but his support of so many humanitarian causes like the Starlight Children's Foundation, which aids critically ill children and their families cope with their pain, fear and isolation, the Nelson Mandela Children's Fund, the Save Darfur Coalition, the Intrepid Fallen Heroes Fund, The Robin Hood Foundation, which targets poverty in New York City and scores of others.

As a Christian we are taught to forgive. Mr. Epstein has admitted the errors of his ways and paid for those mistakes. He is focusing his life on helping others. We should all do the same.

Version II

I recently learned that I have been misinformed about the facts surrounding Jeffrey Epstein's conviction several years ago and that statements that have been attributed to me are false. For this, I deeply apologize. This misinformation emanated from news reports citing Florida civil attorneys, including one whose partner is currently serving 50 years in jail, and a man representing himself as an ex-FBI agent who I have learned [never was in the FBI and] is in fact working for one of the attorneys who has been quoted in these stories.

Mr. Epstein is not a pedophile by any definition of the word. [According to public records, he was convicted of procuring a person under the age of 18 for prostitution, for he has served his time.] [It is my understanding that this involved a woman just a few months short of her 18th birthday.]
