Just spoke to the breeder. If you take the 2 male brindle they are 4800 each, hand delivered NM
Plus $140 per dog if you want the ears cropped

I'm sending you two different options:

This a a boy and a girl Dane. They are a very unique Mearle color and 5 weeks old.

Dad is a HUGE 220 lbs black European Dane from Hungary. Mothers is giant as well. These guys will be stunning.

I'm learning about Great Danes. So apparently if you want them really big without the typical hip problems, it has to be European stock. The American Danes are smaller and less robust.

You can have these hand delivered to Zorro in 3 weeks.

Note. These are not pets. They are top of the line breed stock from someone who really knows the race. They have the perfect shape and temperament and they come with warranties and all the important certificates. So, they are not cheap. They are asking $6K a piece but I can probably talk them down quite a bit in this economy.

The ears have not been cropped yet, so you can decide if you want the floppy or standing up
