

The press headlines of "sex slave" "sex ring", sex predator. are all tabloid fictions meant to sell newspapers. nothing more. It was widely reported I was his sex slave. There is nothing further from the truth. Jeffrey met me when I was fully, and technically and adult. He was generous kind and funny. Claims of him [REDACTED] are obviously a delusion of some loser- male reporter \

Jeffrey Epstein never testified on his own behalf, never! his lawyers actually made no attempt in the press to explained the facts, they merely argued whether the laws, that were clearly tortured beyond recognition in order to fit his behavior into a federal crime, applied . Testifying would have meant bringing other people into a mess of admittedly his own creation. Why, Jeffrey rarely left his house, he did not troll on the internet. he did not drive around looking for girls, he didn't go to clubs parties or even restarants. Being what some might call a health nut, He has never had a drink or drug. he did 90 minutes of yoga every day or resistance training, he would then shower , and begin his day, THat day ineventiably began with a massage. He would begin his work by getting on the massage table, face down

BEFORE anyone was in the room, and begin making his daily calls. A massge person, recruited from either the local massege places. massuees he knew or friends of a masseeh would enter the dimly lit massage room and begin working on his calfs before he even said hello, He would most of the time , not even know who they were , he might ask their name, and who brought them, often, as the police reports show, their friends waited downstairs.. the ages of the daily massage persons ranged from young to over 60. the vast majprity in their twenties and early thirties. The message pads would show, many if not all , would call asking to see when he was free so that they could return, or they would suggest a friend. they all were told no underage girls. in fact the police report that describes the first girl who was in reality fourteen telling the police, she said she was 18. in her words, she said if I had told the truth I would not have been able to get in the house. . in her words, not his.? not one witness not one suggested that he asked for underage girls. The idea is ludicrous. . THE local strippers that willingly came as well as the girls who worked in the local massage parlors came, many later labled as the Jane doe " victims " . JANE doe 1 [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] admittedly some had less of a typical professsion or experience. each and every one were brought by one of their friends or acquaintences. many who brought thier frineds including the jane does in questions , brought their friends to the house. The horrifyning experiences that they described seemed not to be so horrifying as to prevent them from bringing their best friends and returning on multiple occasions When the stories of the girl are compared, IT should have raised concerns that the language of each was almost verbatim. rehearsed amongst themselves. Jeffrey was never alone in the house. there was always staff , always. not one time did any girl complain, suggest an impropriety .. NOT one time.

Jeffrey is certainly does not cut a sympathetic figure , the boy genius , that people from all over the world come to hear his financial prognostications. there are no parties at the house, there is rarely even wine served (to the dismay of his guests) , he is a loner. He doesn't really socialize . when the local sex crimes prosecutor , with experience of over 20 years , in palm beach , went through all the facts and claims . She in her words, said that there were no real victims here. None "no real victims". One of the type that is forced against her will , I as a woman an unimaginable and horrific experience. These were victims only in the sense of their technical. age . Technical age. Not psychological age. Not based on years of prostitution , scams crimes etc. just birthdate. In florida though the girl might even show fake id. Relying on their word is not enough. Misrepresentaion of age , is not a defense. Not a defense. When a seventeen year old , signs a contract to buy a dress on time and then doesn't pay , she cannot be held accountatble as she was not legally old enough to enter a binding contract.

This was all a local matter, Jeffrey rarely left his house. I was already a stretch to attempt to turn this into a federal crime, more of a stretch to claim that arranging a massage on a telephone, giving the necessary federal nexus. (the telephonebeing the means of interstate commerce.). Jeffrey almost never on the phone himself. Someone merely arranging an appointment. The feds suggested traveling for the purpose. Of underage sex. Here Jeffrey was going home to his house of 20 years. Going to his home not to Thailand (where no local laws preventing abuse). In the strangest twist of all , the feds required him to pay a list of girls whose actual names they would only provide AFTER he was in jail. A minimum amount of money, and if THEY didn't agree, he would have to hire a lawyer for them, pay the lawyer to sue himself. And not be able to contest liability. Yes what you have read is correct , no matter how crazy it sounds.

I was never the tabloid given moniker , a sex slave. Jeffrey [REDACTED] Jeffrey did nothing to me , but did enable me to [REDACTED] people by not taking the time to make sure the checklist is complete would be irresponsible , unprofessional and dangerous. The press has ignored this basic premise. Not taking the little time to check the basic allegations. [REDACTED] though she described in minute detail the dinner. From how the president arrived to where he sat. however it never ever happened. Made up of total fabrications, the press chose to ignore how easily refuted these statements were and with reckless disregard for the people they would hurt , took the story to the air and let it fly.
