 This Week on Kickstarter

March 28, 2013

This week we're all about transformation — from turning our nails into works of art, to learning how roads evolved from bike paths to highways, to literally turning ourselves into someone else.

Scratch off

Sometimes we just want to swag out our nails, but using nail polish to make the patterns of our dreams isn't always that easy. Scratch is dedicated to making sure your nails pop, and with nail wraps from some amazing designers and illustrators, you'll be sitting pretty in no time.

Highways and Biways

Most of us make use of roads every day without thinking twice about where they came from, or even why they exist. In his new book, Carlton Reid explores exactly that, delving into the history of roads in the US and UK, their place in a society, and their roots in cycling.

Transformation

Cheyne Gallarde wants to turn himself into you. That's right: what began as a reward tier in his Universe of One project is now an entire project of its own. Send a photo of yourself to Cheyne and he'll transform himself into you. If you've ever wanted to be "Cindy Shermaned", now's your chance!
