Friends.....

Attached, please find a recent article on the current state of democracy in Libya as the election process is in moving forward rapidly. The article singles out National Front Party ("NFP") and its founder and President Dr. Muhammad Al Magariaf (who is often referred to as the Nelson Mandela of Libya) and "our guy."

A Hung Democracy in Libya: the newly renamed National Front Party (NFP; formerly the National Front for the Salvation of Libya, NFSL) could emerge as one of the key contenders. The NFP has a 31-year history of opposition to Qadhafi, and the newly elected NFP president, Muhammad Magariaf, struggled before and during the Libyan uprising to end the Qadhafi dictatorship. Through the NFSL he was instrumental in orchestrating international action, relief for the civilian population during the uprising, and weapons for anti-Qadhafi fighters. Dr. Magariaf, for a long time an exile in the US after he rebelled against Qadhafi in 1981, will play a big role in leadership ... Read more

I strongly urge everyone to read this article and do what ever you can to help make this very special man (Dr. Muhammad Al Magariaf) become Libya's first democratically elected President.

Sincerely,

Greg Brown
