Small Fry tournament on St. Croix

By DAVID EDOLE
Special to the Daily News

ST. CROIX — Small Fry is coming to St. Croix. Positive Guidance will host a tournament this weekend at High School.

The tournament is open to girls between the ages of 5 and 6, who are 5-foot-3 or less.

"Small Fry has been around more than 30 years," Positive Guidance director Jose Gonzalez said. "It's branched out to Puerto Rico, St. Thomas. Now, it is here and it is also another step in our programs."

"We were contacted by (St. Thomas) Jaguars to sponsor the St. Croix," Gonzalez said. "I attended the tournament last year and found it a great idea. I brought the Jaguars at that time and we played the tournament together for more games. We've been planning it out, and now that the tournament is here."

The eight-team tournament will start at 6 p.m. tonight with the Jaguars and Positive Guidance. The Jaguars will play the Blazers against the Lakers B against the St. Thomas Jaguars at 7 a.m. Saturday at the High School.

Gonzalez said he will help finance the tournament. Small Fry is a part of the World of Sports at Disney World.

"This tournament is a great idea," Gonzalez said. "It's the Year for the Nation's Workers last year. Admissions are open. For more information, contact me at 340-773-1105."
