Please be on the look out for this test kit that is being sent to PB. Let me know when it arrives as this is important to Jeffrey. Thx!

Hi [REDACTED]
Not sure why he did not tell me this earlier but as you'll see from email below, the lab cannot ship to NY, apparently due to state laws. When we receive our new kits I can send one, or if Jeffrey is going to be in FL or another state, the company can overnight you a new one tomorrow.
Sorry for the inconvenience.

I have a problem. We cannot ship the GIFX kits to New York. Long story short, half of our profiles cannot be shipped in new York from any lab. It's a New York state issue. I use to be able to ship under the old system with Metamatrix if doctor's office address was outside of NY, but it automatically blocks out any kits that cannot be shipped NY. When you have a moment please call me so I can suggest another option.
