Additional Baggage Information

Carry-on baggage information

United accepts one carry-on item of no more than 45 linear inches or 114 centimeters in the aircraft cabin, along with one personal item (such as a laptop bag).

Due to FAA regulations, operating carriers may have different carry-on policies. Please check with the operating carrier for more information or go to united.com.

General Baggage Information

First and second bag service charges do not apply to active-duty military and their accompanying dependents. For additional information on baggage charges allowances, weight/size restrictions, exceptions or embargoes, or charges for overweight, oversized, excess, odd-sized baggage, special items or sporting equipment, visit united.com/baggage.

eTicket Reminders

Check-in Requirement - Bags must be checked and boarding passes issued at least 30 minutes prior to scheduled departure. Baggage will not be accepted if advance seat assignments may be cancelled if this condition is not met.

EXCEPTION:when departing from Anchorage, Atlanta, Chicago, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Denver, Honolulu, Houston, Indianapolis, Jacksonville, Kahului, Las Vegas, Los Angeles, Maui, Miami, Newark, Orange County (SNA), Orlando, Philadelphia, Phoenix, San Francisco, San Juan, PR, St. Louis, Seattle, Tampa or Washington, DC (DCA), the check in requirement time for Passengers and Bags is 45 minutes.

Boarding Requirement - Passengers must be prepared to board at the gate with their boarding pass at least 15 minutes prior to scheduled departure. Failure to meet the Boarding Requirements may result in cancellation of reservations, denied boarding, removal of checked baggage from the aircraft and loss of eligibility for denied boarding compensation.

Bring your boarding pass or this eTicket Receipt along with photo identification to the airport.

The FAA now restricts carry-on baggage to one bag plus one personal item (e.g., briefcase, laptop computer, etc.) per passenger.

IMPORTANT CONSUMER NOTICES

Incorporated Terms - Your travel is subject to United's Contract of Carriage. The Contract is available for inspection at any UA ticketing facility, united.com, or by calling 1-800-UNITED-1. Passengers have the right to receive the full text of the Contract incorporated by reference free of charge by mail or other delivery service. Contract terms include rules about limits on liability for personal injury or death, loss, damage, or delay of goods and baggage, check-in times, overbooking, cancellations, issues, reservations, denial of carriage, refunds, claims limits and restrictions, including time limitations for filing a claim or lawsuit, and schedule changes and irregularities. The Contract of Carriage contains further detail of these terms.

Additional Terms - Depending on the rules applicable to the fare paid, there may be restrictions including, but not limited to one or more of the following, that may apply to your travel: (1) the ticket may not be refundable but may be exchangeable for another restricted fare ticket meeting all the rules/restrictions of the original ticket (including the payment of any difference in fares); (2) a fee may apply for changing/canceling reservations; or (3) travel may be restricted to specific dates and/or times and minimum and/or maximum stay may be required.

Baggage Liability - On domestic flights, United's maximum liability limit for checked baggage is $3400 USD per passenger and United excludes liability for damage to fragile, perishable items carried in all baggage including jewelry, computers, cameras, and equipment and similar valuables. If any of these items are lost, damaged, or destroyed, you will not be entitled to any reimbursement. You can declare excess value for certain baggage at the airport, additional fees will apply.

ADVICE TO INTERNATIONAL PASSENGERS ON CARRIER LIABILITY - Passengers on a journey involving an ultimate destination or stop in a country other than the country of departure are advised that international treaties known as the Montreal Convention, or its predecessor, the Warsaw Convention, including amendments, may apply to the entire journey, including any portion thereof in the United States. For such passengers, the treaty, including special contracts of carriage embodied in applicable tariffs, governs and may limit the liability of the carrier in the respect of death of or injury to passengers, and for destruction or loss of baggage, and for delay of passengers and baggage.

Notice—Overbooking of Flights - Airline flights may be overbooked, and there is a slight chance that a seat will not be available on a flight for which a passenger has a confirmed reservation. If the flight is overbooked, no one will be denied boarding. Airline personnel first ask for volunteers willing to give up their reservation for compensation of the airline's choosing. If there are not enough volunteers, the airline will deny boarding to other persons in accordance with its particular boarding priority. With few exceptions, including failure to comply with the carrier's boarding deadline which are available upon request from the air carrier, persons denied boarding involuntarily are entitled to compensation. The complete rules and conditions of carriage, payment of compensation and each airline's boarding priorities are available on the airline's website.

airport ticket counters and boarding locations. Some airlines do not apply consumer protections to travel from some foreign countries, although other protections may be available. Check with your airline or your travel agent.
