Morning Chris...I was at the house yesterday and looking at the open space for the thermadore "triple" microwave, oven and warming drawer...I didn't measure, but want to make sure there is enough space for all three of these appliances...can you double check for me? I'll also try to find the measurements on line and go over and measure today...just one of those things you think about laying in bed at 3am!!

Also, I thought the cabinet over the sink was going to be just like the one in your showroom! With the stainless steel and glass?! I guess that is my error ...you had said a cabinet like this and I assumed exactly like what you showed me! It 's totally fine...i like the way it is...white shaker door cabinet and it does raise up just like you showed me... :)

Let me know on measurements...thanks, [REDACTED]
