Hard to keep your cool with those people. They would not even make the change for your kitchen sink. Let's try to stay cool. But I am pissed too.
We have the trailer which is empty now. We could store them in there if push comes to shove. I would make them keep them till we are ready. Remember we write them the last check. Don't get all upset about this. Shit happens. You should see the crap I have to put up with. We will work this out.

Wanted to let you know that your cabinets are in and we keep them for two weeks. After the two weeks is up then storage fees are applied to your balance, which is $150.00 per week. So I was trying to find out when you could take delivery of your cabinets and also set up installation of them. Lastly I wanted to talk to you about the granite. The cabinets came in 8/16/13. So if you want to avoid them please can you call me. Thanks again for getting back to me.

Hi Chris (I know you are away), Joe and Pauline,

My builder requested I let you know we are sheet rocking and doing the hardwood in the next three weeks. We could have a primer coat on the interior in about 4 weeks...

Pauline, I know you called me the other day and you are due a call...been very busy at work and it's hard to make a call...might you be able to put in an email what you wished to discuss?

Thank you
