The opera will be over at around 6:40 pm, and the intermissions are included. I have no idea as to the duration of the intermissions though I am guessing each will be around 15-20 minutes maximum.
Hope this helps.

actually, sorry,,,,but does this mean the opera is over around 6:40pm or later due to the 2 intermissions? HOW long are the intermissions?

Running time is 3'40", with two intermissions.
The all-cast party will start shortly after, at Leon's house, and has no set end-time but will go on for easily a couple of hours I imagine.

Thanks,

Hi Catherine...quick question...how long is the opera on sunday? I know it starts at 3pm...but what time is that over? Also, I know there is an All Cast After Party immediately following...still not sure if JE will be going, but how long does that run usually?

I need to relay this to Jeffrey for planning purposes...

Thanks
