Hi [REDACTED]

What material were you considering using for the masterbath Vanities? I know we went back and forth so many times so I just want to be sure I am quoting you what you want. Let me know.

Thanks,

Hi [REDACTED] ..below is what i rec'd from my kitchen guy! I think overhang should be "standard" (?) I would love to know cost of standard thickness and then thick (mitered) thickness! I still need to look at your quote and will do so later ..in a hurry now...but wanted to get you this info! Good to see you quickly :)

Each Vanity is: 72" wide by 21" deep and supported beneath.

Depending on the overhang desired, each top will be slightly larger in each dimension.
