Most roofs you can put on in 2 days. This roof three to 4 weeks.

Bob, Ike would like a medicine can on his side. Is it possible to put one way to the left of his vanity side? I want to send you a pic from Houzz I found. They incorporated the medicine cabinet flush with the larger mirror going across the wall. This is what I want for Ike. I want it to be flush so it appears to be one long mirror over the vanity (obviously with a line down the side where the mirrored medicine cabinet meets up with the mirror on the wall... But it appears to be one big mirror). Not sure if I am explaining this well!

Went to house this morning. Didn't look like much was done roof wise or other. But perhaps it's all things not real noticeable being done!
