I will...I have to see what her availability is also...I'm not sure when she works in a salon, etc. I'll let you know...but this seems like a great way to go!

darn! we are way off.

I will need when we get back from vacation (around the first of April -- that will be 8 weeks) -- or who knows, maybe my hair will get a little lighter from the sun (but I was really planning on wearing a hat a lot. . .

LMK if she uses / can get the Wella product

Ok, good to know on the product...I will ask if she can get this...and she might give a better deal, not sure...

I am due now! I had my hair done Jan.18 and I was hoping to do March 23 or 30...one other thing, is I could potentially do on a friday when I work from home (which would not be good for you) But, maybe I can test her out, and ask if she can do us both on a Sat. When were you thinking you would get yours done again?

that would be awesome! and fun too. . . and maybe she would provide a discount :)

Wella is the product
Bleach 20 volume
7-0110 volume

we need to get to the same 'need' point. . . I had mine done Feb 2. . .
when do you need yours done?

Ash! Paula has a girl come to her house and highlight and cut her hair...I have her number and want her to come to my house ...she is $150 for highlights (and she uses really good products...Paula has that info) When are you due for highlights? Paula got a 3 color highlight, little bang trim and a blow out for $150...that is worth it! What is the name of the products ezelle uses? I want to ask this girl about them also (although, I'm sure whatever Paula uses would be great)
