that is a lot of money...but what about quality and durability? we have had no probs with our roof and it is like ugly tar! We could still put snow catchers on this GAF Asphalt roof?

If you chose an asphalt roof you would save a huge amount of money. 60,000 or more.

Hey bob...I have no idea what this GAF company is all about but the house I saw on the Houzz website looked beautiful with this roof...would it be less expensive and still quality and durable?...

Hey [REDACTED]

I hope this finds you well.

The roof shingle is a 40 year asphalt shingle. It is by GAF and the series is called "slateline". Attached is a link for you.

Thanks

Hello Brian...I hope you don't mind me reaching out to you...I saw a beautiful home of yours on Houzz located at The Point on Lake Norman out side of Charlotte, NC...Dustin Peck Photography may have posted it...it is a brick home with gate entry into a somewhat circular drive on a lake! ...can you tell me what kind of roof you used on this house? Is that slate? Real or Faux? what is the name of the color(s) used? Or perhaps it is not slate???

I am building a home in [REDACTED] and really like this look..

If you have a moment to shoot me back an email, it would be much appreciated!

Thank you,
