Direct from acclaimed sold-out engagements at the Lincoln Center Festival and the National Theatre of Scotland, this spring, Tony Award® winner (Cabaret) and two-time Emmy® nominee ("The Good Wife") Alan Cumming returns to Broadway in a thrilling new interpretation of Shakespeare's darkest and most powerful tragedy, MACBETH.

A tour-de-force performance directed by Tony Award winner John Tiffany (Once) and Andrew Goldberg, this MACBETH is set in a clinical room deep within a dark psychiatric unit. Cumming is the lone patient, reliving the infamous story and inhabiting each role himself. Closed circuit television cameras watch the patient's every move as the walls of the psychiatric ward come to life in a visually stunning multi-media theatrical experience. Don't miss this 1 hour and 45 minute breathtaking portrayal of Shakespeare's notorious tale of desire, ambition and the supernatural.

The producers of MACBETH are offering a limited number of $99 Orchestra seats for the first weeks of the run. Buy now before they're gone!
