I read this yesterday while at Lily Studervant's bridal shower in NYC and laughed so much, everyone wanted to know why. . .so I have now shared your story with lots of people I just met yesterday for the first time. . .

I'm glad it's beautiful and I'm looking forward to seeing you (albeit briefly) in Texas!
(That's okay, you guys just need to plan a trip to NY soon! :))
Love Ashley

It's like being on our second honeymoon – everything is so luscious and beautiful! And since we have the dogs along, Randy and I now have a whole exciting new topic of conversation to help endear us to one another.

It goes something like this: "I saw Cricket pee but not poop," "Well I saw Cha Cha poop and pee," "Take Cricket out again she needs to poop," "Time for the dogs to pee – it's YOUR turn to go!" etc., etc., etc. endlessly! It's SOOOO romantic we're falling in love again all over! Randy, Cha Cha, Cricket I love you.

Ashley and Lesley I love you, too and wish you were here instead of my other children – the dogs! Love mom
