Hi [REDACTED]

It has been awhile! All is well here, the singing and dancing continues...

Woody's schedule is in constant flux, but as of this moment, he will not be in Paris on June 12th but will spend some time there at the end of that month, and we'll be headed to SF in mid-July through the beginning of September.

Happy rainy Wednesday,

Kathryn

Hi Kathryn...its' been awhile! feels strange! Are you still entertaining your fellow workers with song and dance :)

I was looking over my reminders and I see Jeffrey was wondering about Woody's summer travels...any word on if Woody will be in Paris June 12th or in San Fran some point in July?
