Bill,

Good to hear from you. I can imagine the drive to NJ gets tiresome. At least for many commuters the train is a time to relax. When I used to drive from NYC to Stamford for a year it was never fun. I am glad to hear the girls are thriving. I hope to see them out on the soccer field this spring and at the pool this summer.

The [REDACTED] are doing well. [REDACTED] is in first grade at South [REDACTED] and I had him repeat first grade since he changed schools and he is a December 16th 2004 birthday. He was the youngest in his class at the Children's School. He really struggled just to keep up. He is now where he should be. He needs to work hard to do well and he is not way out front of the class. Our fear was he may be bored but that is not the case.

I will be coaching soccer again making it my 6th season. First game is tomorrow so who knows how my team will do. I never know the talent I will have but I always know I have [REDACTED] who will be solid as usual. He is also playing Lacrosse and loves basketball. We often play up at Saxe.

My business is going well but not without challenges. Wall Street is in a state of constant change but we seem to be fighting a good fight.

[REDACTED] is great as usual.

Will the girls be playing soccer this spring?

I hope to see you soon.

Ike

Ike -

The thought just crossed my mind that it has been a really long time since we've seen each other - even in passing. I figured I would drop you a quick note to touch base, say hello and see how everything was going both with the family and with the company. All is good on this end. Other than the fact that I am still driving down to NJ for work much to much and it is really having a poor effect on me physically. I am in just awful shape. Thankfully Anne and the girls are all thriving. I hope all is well with the [REDACTED] Please tell Les and Ty that I said hello.

Hope to see you guys sometime soon.

Take care -
Billy
