OK, update. His 'home health care' nurse just called – she is coming by this afternoon, so all is well! Just minor stuff, but we want it taken care of PROPERLY so nothing BECOMES major stuff. Apparently we had another case of miscommunication – we've had a bunch of that with so many different entities involved. Modern medicine is wonderful, but also complicated!

Yes, brown paper bags are very 'festive' (and easy!). Love [REDACTED]

I'm glad Nurse [REDACTED] will be there tonight and help with some answers!! That's good.

And, Les, I am glad you went quickly to go find out what your ear thing was about! Antibiotics will kick in quick!

You need to seek out some jewish doctors! (however Hanukkah is now as well!) When [REDACTED] was born [REDACTED] (Dr. Newman!) She did a great job.. :) But we figured the others wanted be home around the holidays...I hope you can find some doctors for answers...there has to be some out there...

I have read up on my ear ...everyone around here has had a cold and been 'not feeling great'...I finally succumbed a few weeks ago and I recall my ear hurting some...then sort of went away ...then came back on the outer ear...sweat, shampoo, sand (although I have not been to the beach!) etc can make it worse...and it is for sure inflamed...very odd! but nothing I can't deal with! Hope y'all have fun with the family tonight xoxo

Sorry about the ear pain. HOW did you get an infected ear cartilage? You were smart to jump on the opportunity for doctoring quickly – [REDACTED] is finding that NO medical personnel are working this week. He can't get anything done and he just had major surgery! We are literally contacting nurses we know who live in the neighborhood to try and get answers to some of our worrisome medical questions. EVERYBODY else is off for Christmas! Plus we'll see [REDACTED] tonight, so maybe [REDACTED] can help [REDACTED]

So, THANK YOU both [REDACTED] for the really fun nurse suit – it has been a BIG hit! Love [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] You look amazing! I can't believe how perfect that nurses 'uniform' is for you!
Wow!!! and [REDACTED] you never cease to amaze me as well...your attitude is worth a second look from EVERYONE! Not many would be able to tackle this like you. I went to the "walk in" medical center yesterday because my left ear is really hurting...the pain has moved down into my jaw some and you can't even touch my ear! But when the doctor said on a scale of 1-10 how is the pain...I had to say a 1 so I can reserve 2-10 for WAY more series stuff! Turns out I have an 'outer' ear infection (kind of on the cartilage of my ear) Anyway, I have antibiotic drops and will be FINE! I just didnt want it to be 'something' worse over xmas...

So happy you love the bells and [REDACTED] uniform...all Get Well Soon Gifts sure to help!!
Mom keep up the good work and [REDACTED] get better QUICK! Miss y'all!

(and FYI- [REDACTED] was in on the uniform as well! I found it and sent the link to her and she agreed [REDACTED] needed it!) Love, [REDACTED]
