Subject: Join us for an Exclusive Unplugged on Youth Homelessness in New York City

Lesley,

In the city we call home, nearly 4,000 young people – some just 12 years old – are homeless.

Please join us on April 4 for the next installment in our Unplugged learning series – a conversation on the challenges faced by homeless youth and new efforts, thanks to your support of Robin Hood, being implemented across the five boroughs to help young people achieve housing stability and independence.

To attend, please RSVP by Friday, March 31 to [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

WHEN: Tuesday, April 4 at 6:30 PM – 8:00 PM
WHERE: Robin Hood, 826 Broadway (12th Street), 9th Floor
Refreshments and light hors d'oeuvres will be served.

Additionally, please also join us next week on March 15 at 6:30 p.m. as we launch four new social ventures incubated by [REDACTED] Following formal pitches, guests will have a chance to mingle and ask questions. RSVP here.

Best,

Brendon
